

A SURPRISING AND UNIQUE END OF YEAR PRESENT: THE BARBECOOK® AMICA TABLE BARBECUE

You too will probably soon be searching for original and affordable presents for under the Christmas tree. If you give a barbecuecook® Amica as present, you're bound to be the most popular guest at the party!

With the Amica table barbecue, Belgian barbecue producer barbecuecook® launches a new way of party cooking for indoor and outdoor use. Everyone grills their own food around the authentic fire of the Amica. This means the host too can sit around the table and enjoy both the delicious food and the company.

The Amica works on the Cook Chips specially developed by barbecuecook®. Their unique composition prevents smoke during the barbecue process. If there is marinated or fatty food on the menu, you simply use the griddle provided. The Cook Chips are lighted with the barbecuecook® fire paste.

During barbecuing, you can use either the cooking grid or the griddle. The Amica also comes with a silicone tray, a booklet of inspiring menu suggestions, and 4 small grilling tongs. In this way, everyone can prepare their food just as they like to.

The Amica and its accessories come in an attractive packaging, ready to be given away as a gift! For further information, video clip and points of sale, visit www.barbecuecook.com.

DID YOU KNOW: the Amica grew out of an idea launched in a TV programme on Flemish television, in which inventors were invited to present their designs. Barbecuecook® further developed one of these ideas into the Amica!
